

Huub Lelieveld is President of the Global Harmonization Initiative, Member of the Executive Committee and a Past-President of EFFoST (the European Federation of Food Science and Technology), Founder and Past-President of EHEDG (the European Hygienic Engineering and Design Group). He is a fellow of IAFoST (the International Academy of Food Science and Technology), a fellow of IFT (the Institute of Food Technologists), served on the Governing Council of IUFoST and has been Chair of the Nonthermal Processing and the International divisions of IFT. At Unilever, he was responsible for hygienic processing and plant design and novel processing technologies. He is lead editor of "Hygiene in food processing", the "Handbook of hygiene control in the food industry", "Hygiene control in the design, construction and renovation of food processing factories" and "Food preservation by pulsed electric fields: From research to application". He is co-editor of several other books, including the recently published "Ensuring Global Food Safety: Exploring Global Harmonization". He wrote chapters for many books and encyclopaedia, wrote hundreds of scientific articles, articles for magazines and presented hundreds of papers, globally and is a member of many Editorial Boards (books, journals and magazines).